

FRAUD NOTICE for website?

SCAM ALERT

The Wyoming Board of Professional Geologists has been made aware of scam artists who may target Wyoming licensees. If you receive a call, e-mail, text or other communication from an individual claiming to represent the Wyoming Board of Professional Geologists, here is some information to help you identify whether it is a scam:

The Wyoming Board of Professional Geologists WILL NOT:

- Ask for personal information such as your credit card number or bank account number
- Demand immediate payment on fines that are not yet due
- Ask for or accept prepaid cards such as Green Dot MoneyPak
- Offer to alter a disciplinary order that has already been entered by the Wyoming Board of Professional Geologists

The Wyoming Board of Professional Geologists WILL:

- Send renewal notices by email or postal mail
- Take credit card payment for renewals on the official website at <http://wbpg.wy.gov/> at specific times of the year, otherwise, you yourself must call the Board office to renew.

If you question whether a communication you receive is from the Wyoming Board of Professional Geologists, do not provide personal information or payment. Instead, call the Board office at 307-742-1118 for assistance.
